Special Note

Safe Harbor / Forward-Looking Statements

- This presentation consists of these slides and the associated remarks and comments, which are related and intended to be presented and understood together.
- Certain statements in this presentation and discussion, including, but not limited to, the company's 2016 outlook, are forward-looking. Forward-looking statements are those which are not historical facts and include the company's current expectations regarding adjusted earnings per share in 2017, the planned charge in the fourth quarter and the impact of the charge (including expected run-rate savings), growth and savings opportunities (including initiatives of the company's Enterprise, Technology & Operations group), the use of the remaining proceeds from the sale of the Intellectual Property & Science business and its share buyback program. Forward-looking statements also include the company's expectations for 2016 regarding Financial & Risk's revenue growth and recoveries revenues and Legal's Solutions business and U.S. print revenue performance.
- Our actual results in future periods may differ materially from those currently expected because of a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions. The risks, uncertainties and assumptions that we believe are material are outlined in our disclosure filings and materials, which you can find on www.thomsonreuters.com. Please consult these documents for a more complete understanding of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions. We disclaim any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required by law. Our outlook is provided for the purpose of providing information about current expectations for 2016. This information may not be appropriate for other purposes.

Non-IFRS Financial Measures

- This presentation contains disclosures of certain non-IFRS financial measures. These measures include adjusted EBITDA and the related margin, underlying operating profit and the related margin, free cash flow, adjusted EPS and selected measures before the impact of currency.
- Please see our earnings release dated November 1, 2016, which is available on www.thomsonreuters.com, for a reconciliation of each of these measures to the most directly comparable IFRS financial measure. You can also find IFRS reconciliations in the "Investor Relations" section of our website.

Accelerating Pace of Transformation Program

- Planned charge of $200 - $250 million to be incurred in Q4 2016
 - Primary goal is to drive further simplification & delayering
 - Estimated cash savings of similar magnitude in 2017 (some to be reinvested in the business)
 - Incurred across the organization (majority in F&R and ET&O)
- Enterprise, Technology & Operations Group (ET&O)
 - Building the platform for the future of the company

Growth - Faster time-to-market for new product development

- Prioritizing investments in line with overall TR growth strategy
- More effectively allocating, leveraging & exploiting investments & assets
- Vastly improved flexibility & fungibility of resources across the company

Savings – ET&O $3.3B cost base provides far greater visibility

- Further simplify & streamline the business - No longer 3 separate business units
- Fewer & more robust development sites with high caliber development talent
- Reducing offices from >500 in 2012 to <200 by 2020

Q3 2016

Execution of Strategic Priorities on Track

- Focused on a strong finish to 2016
 - Core business demonstrating resiliency
- Strong growth in profitability
 - Q3 Adjusted EBITDA margin an historic high for the company
- ET&O Group supporting improved execution and operating efficiencies
 - Transformation program is providing additional “self-help”
- Well positioned to build on leadership positions in serving customers
- Setting the stage for 2017
 - Further margin improvement anticipated
 - Forecasting double-digit adjusted EPS growth as we work to achieve target of ~$2.35
