Thomson Reuters Announces C$1.2 Billion Note Offering

NEW YORK, NY, June 19, 2008 -Thomson Reuters (NYSE: TRI; TSX: TRI; LSE: TRIL; NASDAQ: TRIN), the world's leading source of intelligent information for businesses and professionals, today announced it has entered into an agreement with a syndicate of Canadian investment dealers for a public offering in Canada of C$1.2 billion (approximately US$1.2 billion) of notes. The notes are being issued by Thomson Reuters Corporation and will be unconditionally guaranteed by Thomson Reuters PLC. The offering includes C$600 million of 5.25% notes due 2011 and C$600 million of 5.70% notes due 2015. The offering is expected to close on June 25, 2008, subject to customary closing conditions.

Thomson Reuters currently has approximately US$3.4 billion of borrowings under its bridge credit facility related to the cash portion of the Reuters acquisition. Thomson Reuters plans to fully repay this amount using the net proceeds from this C$1.2 billion offering of notes, the net proceeds from the separate US$1.75 billion offering of notes announced earlier this week that is expected to close on June 20, 2008, and other sources available to it.

The C$1.2 billion of notes are not being offered or sold in the United States. This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any of such notes and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale is unlawful.
