March 2, 2010

Proactively prepare for new tax laws and reduce risk of audits

NEW YORK, March 2, 2010 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ -- The Tax & Accounting business of Thomson Reuters recently updated its Mexico Tax, Law and Business Briefing book to help companies comply with Mexico's new tax and finance legislation changes, explore opportunities for minimizing the change impacts, and proactively manage audit risk.

"The number of audits conducted by the Mexican Tax Administration is expected to dramatically increase," said Gary Brown, senior director at WorldTrade Executive (WTE), Thomson Reuters. "The Administration is bolstering its collection efforts to generate more revenue. And NAFTA's unusual audit procedure permits auditors from one country to access exporters and producers in other countries. Consequently, the Administration is auditing the records of importers in Mexico as well as exporters and producers in the U.S. and Canada."

The 2010 edition of Mexico Tax, Law and Business Briefing, published under the WorldTrade Executive brand, helps prepare for these audits.

The book has been updated with details of the latest laws, new case studies, and trusted analysis, addressing the following:

- Mexico Tax Amendments for 2010
- Defending Against Tax Assessments
- Taxation of Cross Currency Swaps
- Tax Developments Affecting M&A
- Guide to Avoid Creating a Permanent Establishment
- Transfer Pricing Rules in Mexico
- New Pension Fund Rules Allow Managers More Freedom to Pick Stocks
- New Trends in Governmental Contracting in Mexico
- Avoiding Unnecessary Duties on NAFTA Imports
- Mexico's Energy Reform
- New Insurance Company Obligations
