Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, Material Risks and Material Assumptions

This presentation consists of these slides and the associated remarks and comments, which are related and intended to be presented and understood together.

Certain statements in this presentation and discussion are forward-looking, including, but not limited to, statements about the company's 2019 and 2020 outlook, the expected impact of recently completed acquisitions and new products and solutions, expectations regarding the future revenue performance of the company and its individual business segments, the company's value creation model, the company's strategic priorities and initiatives, the company's intention to target a dividend payout ratio of between 50% to 60% of its free cash flow, Refinitiv's ability to achieve its run-rate cost savings targets, the company's expectations regarding Corporate costs including those related to the F&R transaction, the company's ability to deliver returns to shareholders, statements regarding the proposed London Stock Exchange Group (LSEG)/Refinitiv transaction, and the company's expectations regarding free cash flow. While the company believes that it has a reasonable basis for making forward-looking statements in this presentation, they are not a guarantee of future performance or outcomes and there is no assurance that the proposed LSEG/Refinitiv transaction will be completed or that any of the other events described in any forward-looking statement will materialize. Forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from current expectations. Many of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions are beyond our company's control and the effects of them can be difficult to predict. Some of the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations are discussed in the "Risk Factors" section of our 2018 annual report as well as in other materials that we from time to time file with, or furnish to, the Canadian securities regulatory authorities and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Our company has provided a business outlook for the purpose of presenting information about current expectations for 2019 and 2020. This information may not be appropriate for other purposes. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements which reflect expectations only as of the date of this presentation. Except as may be required by applicable law, Thomson Reuters disclaims any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements.

The company's 2019 and 2020 business outlook is based on information currently available to the company and is based on various external and internal assumptions made by the company in light of its experience and perception of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments, as well as other factors that the company believes are appropriate under the circumstances. Please refer to our 2018 annual report and our earnings release dated October 31, 2019, which are available on www.thomsonreuters.com, for a discussion of material assumptions related to our business outlook.

Non-IFRS Financial Measures

This presentation contains disclosures of certain non-IFRS financial measures. These measures include adjusted EBITDA and the related margin, free cash flow, adjusted earnings and adjusted EPS, selected measures before the impact of currency and changes in revenues computed on an organic basis.

Please see our earnings release dated October 31, 2019, which is available on www.thomsonreuters.com, for a reconciliation of each of Thomson Reuters' measures to the most directly comparable IFRS financial measure. You can also find IFRS reconciliations in the "Investor Relations" section of our website.

You are encouraged to consult LSEG's public disclosures for additional information about the proposed LSEG/Refinitiv transaction.
