All members of the Audit Committee must meet the criteria for independence contained in applicable law and stock exchange rules and requirements.

Every member of the Audit Committee shall, in the judgment of the Board, be Financially Literate, and shall not have participated in the preparation of the financial statements of the Corporation or any current subsidiary of the Corporation at any time during the past three years. In addition, at least one member shall be an Audit Committee Financial Expert (as determined in the judgement of the Board).

Members of the Audit Committee may not serve on more than two other public company audit committees except with the prior approval of the Board.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES

The auditor is accountable to the Audit Committee and reports directly to the Audit Committee. Accordingly, the Audit Committee will evaluate and be directly responsible for Thomson Reuters relationship with the auditor. Specifically, the Audit Committee will:

- select, evaluate and recommend to the Board, to put forward for shareholder approval at the annual meeting, the auditor to be proposed for appointment or reappointment, as the case may be, to prepare or issue an auditor's report as well as perform audit, review, attest or other services for the Corporation;
- review and approve the auditor's engagement letter;
- after seeking and taking into account the views of senior management and the officer in charge of internal audit, review the independence, experience, qualifications and performance of the auditor, including the lead audit partner;
- oversee the auditor's work, including investigating and resolving any disagreements between senior management and the auditor regarding financial reporting or the internal audit function;
- at least annually, obtain and review a report by the auditor describing its internal quality-control procedures, any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the auditor and any steps taken to deal with any such issues; and
- where appropriate, terminate the auditor.

(b) Confirmation of the Auditor's Independence

At least annually, and before the auditor issues its report on the Corporation's annual consolidated financial statements, the Audit Committee will:

- confirm that the auditor has submitted a formal written statement describing all of its relationships with Thomson Reuters that, in the auditor's professional judgment, may reasonably be thought to bear on its independence;

In addition, the Audit Committee may delegate to one or more members the authority to pre-approve the appointment of the auditor for any non-audit services to the extent permitted by applicable law, provided that any pre-approvals granted pursuant to such delegation shall be reported to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting following such pre-approval.
